

Name & Number: _____

Date Due: 08/20/2018

Book Report

/50

Primary Setting: _____ - 1 pt

(color a picture of the setting with no white spaces - 3 pts)

Title - 1 pt

Author - 1 pt

Publisher - 1 pt

Genre - 1 pt

List Awards Won - 1 pt

Number of Pages - 1 pt

Protagonist: _____

Write three descriptive facts about the protagonist's physical appearance. - 1 pt

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Give two examples from the story of how the protagonist acts. - 2 pts

- 1.
- 2.

Give two examples from the story of how others treat the protagonist. - 2 pts

- 1.
- 2.

Antagonist: _____

Write three descriptive facts about the antagonist's physical appearance. - 1 pt

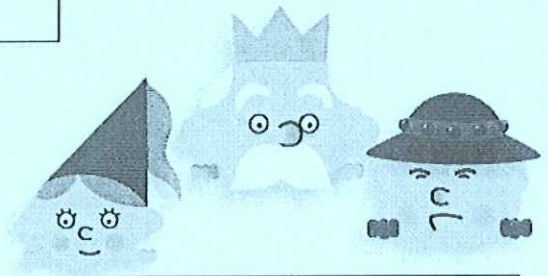

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Give two examples from the story of how the antagonist acts. - 2 pts

- 1.
- 2.

Give two examples from the story of how others treat the antagonist. - 2 pts

- 1.
- 2.

Primary Setting: _____

Time (indicate approximate or exact) - 1 pt

Location (city, region, building) - 1 pt

How would the plot change if the setting was different? - 1 pt _____

What is the theme of the story? - 2 pts _____

Give an example from the story that demonstrated this theme: _____

Figurative Language: (two different types) - 4 pts

_____ :

Type

Quote example from book and include page number

_____ :

Type

Quote example from book and include page number

Vocabulary: (Write 3 sentences from the story including an unknown/difficult word. Underline the difficult word and highlight context clues that determine the meaning of the word. Do not use proper nouns.) - 2 pts each

1. _____

Create a definition from context clues: _____

2. _____

Create a definition from context clues: _____

3. _____

Create a definition from context clues: _____

Point of View: _____ - 1 pt (use a quote from the story to indicate correct POV)

Response to Literature: (Find a significant part in the story that made you think. Reflect on how it challenged your thinking. Cite evidence from the text.) - 4 pts _____

Plot Map: Complete the problem, climax and solution boxes with the appropriate responses. Then list and describe at least 3 major events on the plot line. Events should correlate with the problem and solution. The writing must make the story clear to someone who has not read the story. Solution must explain how the problem is solved. Use examples from the story to support your choice.

